WELCOME

Good day! In the name of the God of creation, Jesus our Savior and the Holy Spirit who guides our ways, welcome to worship.

We ask all worshippers to please share with us their presence by signing the Welcome to Worship pad as it is passed in the pew. Prayer Request cards can be found in the hymnal racks.

RADIO BROADCAST

In loving memory of Arnold Junck by his family. Radio broadcast of our Sunday morning worship service can be heard live on AM 1590 and FM 98.9, online at waynedailynews.com and the Wayne Radio app.

INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION

As a congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, this is an open table, all are welcome to come and celebrate Holy Communion. We commune because Jesus told us to do so to remember him. In remembering him, our faith is strengthened as together we "proclaim the Lord's death" for the world and for forgiveness of sins.

Clear juice is provided for those who prefer an alternative to wine and Gluten free wafers are available.

YOU'RE INVITED TO A

Charity Circle will host an All-Church Picnic on Wednesday, July 31, at 6pm at Bressler Park (we'll gather in the church social room if it's too hot to be outside). Broasted Chicken, Potatoes and water will be provided; please bring either a Vegetable, Salad or Dessert to share and your own table service. Please sign up at the information desk in order to get count for food. All are welcome!

PIE AND ICE CREAM SOCIAL

Concordia Lutheran Church in Concord invites you to their annual Pie and Ice Cream Social this Sunday, July 21, from 5–7pm. Homemade pie and homemade ice cream will be served. Everyone is welcome!

SAVED TO SERVE OPPORTUNITY—LFS/Dana Village

Lutheran Family Services purchased the former Dana College Campus; the Angel Share program located there assists young adults exiting out of the Foster Care System in Nebraska. The August WELCA Saved to Serve Opportunity will be to help set up a Dana Village Pantry to provide resources for these youth. Items needed include: full or queen size quilts by individual or congregation; shampoo/conditioner; soap; laundry detergent; toilet paper and feminine hygiene products. The WELCA Box will be in the Narthex. Monetary gifts to purchase these items are also welcome.

LECTIONARY 16

Sacred Rest

The action-packed book of Mark may serve as an important reminder that faith is an embodied reality, shaping how we live, move, and interact in this world. An active faith looks like an unapologetic pursuit of justice, mercy, and healing for all in need. There was and still is no shortage of work to be done in the name of Christ. So, what do we make of Jesus' invitation to "come away . . . and rest awhile"?

In a society that values hustle and productivity above all else, true rest is profoundly countercultural. And yet, rest as a discipline has much to teach us about faith and life. Perhaps most importantly, rest reminds us that we are not God. It requires faith that God is still making all things new even while we step back for our own healing and nourishment. Rest reminds us that we do not bear the salvation of the world on our shoulders. This is good news!

Additionally, taking time to rest has the potential to restore us to community, by reminding us of our rightful place in the body of Christ. We are but one part among many, which allows us to approach our work with more freedom and joy than we ever could alone. We are called to do the work of ministry in community: we all alternate rest, work, and play so that, collectively, we can move toward liberation for all God's beloved creation.

We may find this sacred rest in many places, but perhaps one such instance is in worship. Here, we come away to be with our God and each other. We feast together. We celebrate, contemplate, and praise. We remember who we are and whose we are. And then, rested and nourished, we are sent back out—to go in peace, to share the good news, and to continue to serve our neighbors in Christ's name.
